Learn How to Support A Smoke-Free Policy At Your Tribal Casino

With many tribal casinos beginning to re-open their facilities, the question being considered is whether to open smoke-free? The Southwest Tribal Tobacco Coalition (STTC) has prepared resources for patrons, tribal leaders, casinos, and tribal programs to support smoke-free casinos. Using the STTC Smoke-Free Casino dashboard, users are able to review and utilize content that will assist them with their smoke-free and secondhand smoke prevention initiatives. The continued impact of COVID-19 and the new Delta variant is leading businesses to consider the health of their patrons. Now is a crucial time for tribal leaders, casinos, and programs to establish permanent smoke-free and vape-free policies to protect community welfare.

Basic Tobacco Intervention Skills Certification for Native Communities VIRTUAL Training

Tuesday - Thursday, August 24, 25, & 26, 2021 from 1:00 PM - 3:30 PM (MT)

This Tobacco Intervention training is culturally tailored to distinguish between the use of traditional and commercial tobacco in Native American communities and emphasize evidence-based techniques to increase the rates of successful interventions resulting in the cessation of commercial tobacco use.

In partnership with the Albuquerque Area Southwest Tribal Epidemiology Center (AASTEC) and the Indian Health Service Health Albuquerque Area Promotion Disease Prevention, they are offering this Continuing Education Unit eligible training to all that are interested. AASTEC will cover the $230 materials fee and processing for all attendees in the I.H.S. Albuquerque Area/NM. If you are outside the I.H.S. Albuquerque Area (I/T/U) you will need to purchase training materials directly from the University of Arizona HealthCare Partnership. Please contact Reiko Yazzie at ryazzie@aaihb.org for additional information. AASTEC requests that you be present the entire duration of the training with your computer videos on. Upon successful completion of the training, all eligible participants will receive certification from the University of Arizona HealthCare Partnership.
